What's up in worship?

Today: Pastor Bob will bring the message on the "I Am" statement: "I am the Good Shepherd," and "I am the Gate (or Door) for the sheep." A good shepherd always watched over the sheep coming in and going out. We can see why the Bible compares people to sheep. We all spend our lives traveling through a similar doorway. Every one one of us is constantly moving between a search for familiarity and a return to security. Deep inside of every human heart is a desire to be loved. We want to know we matter and that someone genuinely cares about us. Jesus said, "I am the Good Shepherd" because he is the gate. He's paid the rent. He's invested in us. We matter to him.

Next Week: When Jesus says, "I am the True Vine" he is indicating that the same authority and power of God given to Israel lives in him; but then he declares, "I Am." He is not just a son of Israel; he is the Son of God, connected to the true, or real, source of Israel's strength. We stay connected to God's power by staying connected to Christ. The way to do this is to abide. That word appears ten times in John 15. Abiding in Christ is the key to experiencing spiritual power. How do we abide in Christ? Jesus offers a vivid image—be a branch!

Today's Community Connections:

- The altar flowers are presented by Ken and Phyllis Niewoehner in honor of their family.
- If you are interested in providing fresh flowers for worship, please sign up at the Connections Corner table. (See bullet point below.)
- Feel like you missed something? The Connections Corner table can help. Head across the atrium and get the information you need just under the tv monitor.
- Don't receive our weekly e-news? Please email Sue Kiefner at: SueK@wesleychurch.com to get on the list!
- We are still raising funds for a repleacement projector for the sanctuary. Please consider taking a tag from the peg board outside the sanctuary and help us Project (Y)our Faith!
- The Northampton County Outstanding Seniors Awards will take place at Wesley Church on Thursday, April 26, 2018. If you would like to nominate somebody for this award, which recognizes individuals who contribute their time and talents for the benefit of others in our community, please connect with Susan Matacavage.

Due to to the presence of illnesses making their way around the congregation (and the community), you are encouraged not to shake hands, but rather fist pump and elbow tap your friends and fellow believers during the greeting. While we take many precautions during communion, we would also like to remind you to try not to mistakenly dip your fingertips into the juice as you receive. Thanks!

Message "Knowing God's Care" Bob

Musical Response Who Am I (Michael Frye) The Ensemble

Who am I? That the Lord of all the earth/Would care to know my name, would care to feel my hurt,
Who am I? That the Bright and Morning Star/Would choose to light the way, for my ever-wandering heart,
Not because of who I am, but because of what You've done/Not because of what I've done, but because of who You are,

(Chorus) I am a flower quickly fading, here today and gone tomorrow/A wave tossed in the ocean, a vapor in the wind, Still You hear me when I'm calling, Lord, You catch me when I'm falling/And You've told me who I am: I am Yours.

Who am I? That the eyes that see my sin/Would look on me with love, and watch me rise again,
Who am I? That the voice that calmed the sea/Would call out through the rain, and calm the storm in me,
Not because of who I am, but because of what You've done/Not because of what I've done, but because of who You are

(to chorus)

Not because of who I am, but because of what You've done/Not because of what I've done, but because of who You are (to chorus)

Whom shall I fear: Whom shall I fear? Cause I am Yours. I am Yours.

Message "Knowing God's Care" Bob

Musical Response Once Upon a Tree (P. Choplin) Jane Griffing, soloist

Once upon a tree, a good man died, and though He did no crime, He was crucified. If the story ended there, I would have no song to share, but my heart will ever sing the story. Once upon a tree, so the story goes, and all its mystery surely no one knows. Could the Father's will be done through the suffering of His Son?

And there comes the answer, "Once upon a tree."

For God so loved the world, He gave His priceless pearl. What greater love could there be?

He died, He rose again, still the story doesn't end, For His spirit is living in me.

What tale of human love could there ever be told? What song could compare with the one I hold?

Through everything I am and through everything I'll be, let me sing my story: "Once upon a tree."
