The GOD We Can Know

A WORSHIP AND STUDY SERIES ON THE
"I AM" SAYINGS OF JESUS.

Happy Easter to our Wesley Church Family and Friends!

Today: It's the first clue to the resurrection of Jesus Christ: that the stone had been removed. The theological implications are enormous! When Jesus was buried on Friday, a giant stone was placed between Jesus and the people who loved him. Though Mary went to visit Jesus' grave, she wouldn't be able to see him, because the stone was in the way. She wouldn't be able to touch him, because the stone would prevent her. It was like a barrier that she – and each of us – is incapable of moving. Somebody had to do that for her. And Somebody did.

Next Week: The Easter season, lasting until the Ascension and Pentecost, allows us to look at some wonderful experiences those who saw Jesus had after his resurrection. Next week, Bob will bring the message of "doubting" Thomas, as he has come to be known. But that may be a misnomer. Is it possible that Thomas' faith was as strong as the other disciples? Come and listen as Bob explains... The following weeks will focus on Peter's transformation into the true leader he was meant to be, over a good breakfast.
