What's up in worship?

Today: The second mark of a follower is one who is willing to be last. It's a servant position; one that takes the more vulnerable of society and loves them in the name of Jesus. While the disciples fight about who's #1, Jesus tells them the best place to be is the back of the line.

Next Week: Continuing the discourse from last week, Jesus issues a warning for disciples who abuse the responsibility to care for the least of these. These words are about how followers choose to treat those who do not think like believers/ behave exactly like we wish they would, and yet use the name of Jesus just like us. Jesus tells his disciples not to let personal sin get in the way of others' becoming disciples. Treat it seriously ("cut off" the sinful part). We need to stay salty – not lose our taste/effectiveness. Then we'll be at peace with everyone. A special rededication of our refurbished handbells will take place as well.

I will weep when you are weeping/When you laugh I'll laugh with you
I will share your joy and sorrow/'Til we've seen this journey through

When we sing to God in heaven/We will find such harmony
